Tribute from Taylor Kellahan

Relation: Daughter

My dad was the person I looked up to most in this world. He will be on my mind every single day and will be forever missed. I look forward to telling your granddaughter all about you. Love you dad.

Tribute from Koriena Budd

Relation: parents in law

Far too young. Miss your smiling face with endless adoration of the people you loved. Especially our get togethers and family events we happily shared as in laws. Such a great cook too, Lol, but man of many talents in your photography and crafts., and so much more. You saw the beauty in life. There is a big gap in the world without you but taking comfort in the thought that we will meet again with a whole bunch to talk about. Laughing about all the similar journeys, the kids, grand kids and extended families. Looking forward to it our friend. Proud of you and the legacy you left behind. Well done. With tears and love, Floyd and Koriena Budd

Tribute from Spring Family

Tribute from Lance Abramyk

Relation: Long time childhood friend

So very saddened to hear of Chris's passing. We grew up together houses apart for so many years in Port Moody. He was always a good friend and even though life pulls people in different directions, time and time again we would run into each other on job sites and have a chance to shoot the breeze and talk of old times. So sorry to hear of this. Our deepest condolences from the entire Abramyk clan.
