

REMEMBERING
Janet Ethel Sigvardsen
February 28, 1942 - April 4, 2020

Janet Ethel Sigvardsen, 78 years old of Penticton, BC passed away peacefully at the Penticton Regional Hospital on Saturday April 4, 2020. Janet was born on the 28th of February 1942 in York, Ontario to Samuel and Edith Cameron. Janet is survived by her daughter Christine Odynski (Rick) of Sherwood Park, Alberta. Son's; John Leverdingen and Fred Lee and wife Kim of Ontario. Grandchildren; Tyler Odynski, Austin, Maddison, Cameron and Quinn Leverdingen and Robert and Ryan Lee. She was predeceased by her husband Edward Sigvardsen of Port Moody, BC. Mom was known for her quick fiery wit, fabulous sense of humour, creativity and ability to touch people's hearts as she would play the piano effortlessly by ear. Oh how you will be missed; To the moon and back, forever we love you. Thank you Penticton Regional Hospital and Anne Thorp for your care and compassion. Thank you Cherry Park staff and residence for your care and for bringing mom such happiness. Thank you Kevin of Kettle Valley Memorial for your support, respect and compassion through this difficult time. Kevin, you have made this so much less of a burden.
