

REMEMBERING
William Robert Littlejohn

February 4, 1926 - June 22, 2022

Passed away in Penticton, BC, on Wednesday, June 22, 2022, at the age of 96 years. Bill was born in Naramata, BC and was the youngest of 5 children; Flora (Florie), John (Jacky), Mary (May) and David. He had many cousins and they were known as the "Grand Family". He married Pamela Prosser on February 4, 1960 and they had two children, Gail and Martin. Bill had an orchard and grew mostly apricots. He also worked for Naramata Co-op, in storage and shipping, retiring at age 60. In 2015, Bill and Pam moved to Southwood Regency Resort, in Penticton. Bill was predeceased by his parents John and Flora Littlejohn. Besides his loving wife Pam, Bill is survived by his daughter Gail (Jim Atkins) and son Martin (Maria), grandchildren; Paul Atkins, Lauren Atkins, Jamie Atkins, Andrew Littlejohn, Thomas Littlejohn and William Littlejohn, as well as many nieces and nephews and one remaining cousin, Winifred Workman. Bill was a loving husband, dad, uncle, and friend, and will be greatly missed. A simple graveside service will be held at 11:00 am, on August 6, 2022, at the Naramata Cemetery. Immediate family are welcome to join us. We invite friends and family to join us at our home, as we celebrate the life of our dad, on August 6, 2022, from 3:00 to 5:00pm, 162 Vancouver Place, Penticton, BC. In remembrance of Bill's life, the family asks that any charitable donations be made to the Heart & Stroke Foundation of Canada.
